On his right walked the Bishop of Mahon, with his canons, and on his left the Abbot of La Trappe and two religious of his house. Then followed the civil and military authorities, between two lines formed by the men of the archconfraternity, and after them came inhabitants of the town, natives of all the European nations. The gendarmes brought up the rear. Along the whole line of the procession, the balconies, crossings, tops of houses, windows, all were crowded; even the hospital arches were full of halfconvalescent patients; the whole town seemed to have poured into the street to do honour to Geronimo. On arriving at the cathedral, the shrine, the bust, and the portrait, were deposited in front of the altar, and after suitable prayers and hymns, the bishop addressed the devout throng on the rare and glorious event they had that day assembled to celebrate. Well may the Christians of Algiers cherish the memory of Geronimo, and rejoice in the intercession of so great a martyr; for events more strange, more touching, could not be pointed out in the whole martyrology of the Church, than are exhibited in the narrative of the death of the heroic Algerine;--his long concealment, his discovery after three centuries, and the wonderful preservation and reproduction of his very lineaments. IN CHINA. F all heathen nations on the face of the globe, China has been the chief object of the Church-s solicitude. In the conversion of...
