At thirty-five, Sam is a never-married, baseball-loving, successful engineer whose chances of finding true love, having kids and living semi-happily ever after are looking bleaker with every passing ball season. Aside from her equally single best friend Marta, Sam s only other guides on the path to true love are her two inner voices who regularly fill her head with conflicting advice. After a frightening brush with death, Sam decides not to waste another second in finding her soul mate. She enlists Marta s help to create a magical man list, a divining rod for finding the perfect man, complete with magical ceremonies that involve breaking into a baseball stadium and almost drowning in the ocean. But if there s one thing Sam and Marta discover on their hilarious journey-there s no sacrifice too great when it comes to finding true love.
