

Almost a Family

By Darnton, John

Anchor, 2012. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Wonderful. . . John Darnton has taken [the memoir] to a new level. . . Gripping, moving, and fascinating." -Susan Cheever, The New York Times Book Review "Inspiring. . . Exciting, deeply felt, evocative of past worlds and times, and full of first-rate reporting. . . [A] fine book." -Ian Frazier, The New York Review of Books "Unusually absorbing. . . Poignant. . . Unfailingly tasteful and profoundly sympathetic, clear-eyed yet humane." San Francisco Chronicle "Gripping. . . Darnton writes with assurance, and the book is structured like a good novel, filled with unexpected twists and turns." - The Washington Independent Review of Books "Old-school reporting skills and a newspaperman's sensibility are on ample display. [Darnton's] tool box includes spare prose hones under deadline pressure in city rooms and cop shops. At key moments of revelation he forces the reader to set the book down for a moment to absorb the shockers about his parents and their relationship. . . [Darnton's] thoughtful memoir dives deeper." - The New York Times "A brave, heartbreaking and inspiring story..."
