Special Note to my dear readers: Making absolute difference to pave the way for a brighter future, has always been the vision of author Christopher A Thompson. . . From the secluded village of mountainous Saint Ann-a place where cultivation, physical labour, farm-animal, straightforwardness, love, peace, tranquility, harmony and reciprocated living once existed, to a lone and long tormented journey, that would later landed him in Kingston-in one of the most fortified-but notoriously dangerous ghetto in Kingstons slum. . . A community where violence seem prone and crooks lurks, where friend turn deadly and murderous speech heard, where police brutality lingers and case turn cold- while plundering, killing, political disturbances and social issues, would serves as an extreme compulsion. . . . Throughout his life, he encountered countless trials, heart-wrenching discourses of crushing chronicle in his native Jamaica-one that tested his soul, his fate, and the limits of his courageous endurance. . . After much learning, Thompson realized that perseverance, wisdom, hard work and moral values are key elements needed and one that should be established among people. . . An insightful look at his incredible journey and his eventful life and lifes philosophy, begins with the release of his first book- TELL IT AS IT IS IN THE HEART OF THE MASTERMIND. . . In Tell It As It Is, the author unleashed to readers the sleazy and miserable history once existed behind his Jamaican heritage. . . As a youngster, he left his rural hometown and farther himself to Kingston to begin his quest for a brighter future, things got exceedingly difficult for him fast-when he stayed in the mean but trifling side of town (Kingstons Slum)...
