FRED KADIGAN: Sometimes bad things do actually happen to bad people. Something watching you all your life. Waiting off in the shadows, for the sum of the many, to take its restitution, and bestow your just desserts. Animal brutality? . Theft? . Untruths? . Arson? . Womanizing? . What is it worth? . A trade off? - A soul . Death . All three? One should always beware when something comes along too good to be true, and the blue moon shines bright, casting shadows that allow sins to walk aside us. NO SCAVENGING: Like the sign says, you should not take things. The Saturday afternoon, journey to the local landfill. A wooden cage salvaged and brought home for the family pet. The one referred to in mythology as case number fifty-eight, believed to date 3200 B.C. and be of pre-dynastic Egyptian origin. The box-like cage crafted to contain a demon. The one...
