MORIBUND TALES

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 70 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.2in. Moribund Tales is raw and visceral, these stories will keep you up at night. - Paul Kane These horror stories read like sharp, hard blows to the gut. Grab it and give it a read. - John F. D. Taff Erik Hofstatters Moribund Tales is a short anthology written in a Poe influenced Gothic style. This toe dipping offers the right amount of time inside the warm treacle of words. Any longer gulping below the surface may leave some readers feeling breathless. - The Horrifically Horrifying Horror Blog Hofstatter has made a daring choice in attempting to recreate the romance and dread of the nineteenth century gothic masters such as Edgar Allan Poe, Bram Stoker and Mary Shelley, while adding his own twist to the style. He has done an excellent job of reproducing the chaotic effect that was the trademark of Victorian gothic fiction. - Lisa McCarthy On the whole, Moribund Tales is a pleasantly creepy read. His style is dark, gothic, and only somewhat gory. They remind me of both Edgar Allan Poe and old black and white movies starring Vincent Price. These tales are not full stories with a standard beginning, middle, and end. They are snapshots in the wilderness, bits of horror that fell off along the way. Theyre the sort of stories one might hear in a tent late at night, accompanied by the flicker of a solitary flashlight. - Wicked Channel These tales of dark fiction have a true Gothic style tone to them, with influences from Poe and Stoker very much alive, mixed with the writers own unique twist. - The Strange and the Curious The anthology does work as a...
