EVERYTHING THE MEDIA AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC KNOW ABOUT LAW ENFORCEMENT (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Policing, a very dangerous profession, has become much more so in 2014, not because the job itself has changed, but because of a sudden upsurge in anti-police rhetoric and inaccurate reporting by much of the media, particularly when officers are forced to use any type of force to protect themselves and the citizens they are sworn to protect from a criminal who makes the decision to physically attack them (which by the way is still against the law to do). This is fueling confusion, frenzy and hysteria amongst our citizens, many of whom actually believe everything the media reports to be true and factual. Reporters and the people they interview generally have absolutely no formal training in law enforcement tactics and procedures, no formal training in 4th Amendment law, and are clueless as to what the term Graham v. Connor means. Most of them have never responded to a violent call for service where someone or several people are actually trying to hurt them or kill them. Yet they paint the picture that the police are out of control and apparently look for opportunities to kill and hurt people for no apparent reason. Phil Carlson is the Founder and Lead Instructor of Command Presence Training Associates, a law enforcement training company which provides seminar based trainings for police agencies in the subject areas of Mindset, Threat Assessment, Use of Force and Police Ethics. He has over 30 years experience as a street officer and trainer, and served as the Lead Senior Instructor and Subject Matter Expert for the U.S. Dept. of Homeland Security at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center. He has experienced the best and worst of...
