Teddy Roosevelt called the author, Frederick Courteney Selous, the greatest big-game hunter in the world. This book is one of the most highly regarded, hunting classics - a must-have for any serious hunter or adventurer. A Hunters Wanderings in Africa covers the nine years of Safari from 1871 until 1880. Selous adventures were the acknowledged model for Henry Rider Haggards books about the fictional character, Allan Quatermain. It is also claimed that Selous stories eventually influenced the creation of Indiana Jones. Accurate accounts of hunting, travels, and tribulations! Theyre all in this book. There are also original art illustrations of game and situations of the Safaris.
