

The Dog Bone Portfolio: A Personal Odyssey Into the First Kondratieff Winter of the Twenty-First Century (Paperback)

By John Budden, Margret Kopala

BPS Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Like so many of us, Margret Kopala lost a significant portion of her life savings in the stock market crash of 2008. Unlike us, however, she went on a long and intense financial odyssey to find out what caused the losses and what she could do to protect herself in the future. Armed with her skills as a journalist and public policy analyst, fueled by equal measures of fear and determination, and mentored by successful investment strategist and financial broadcaster John Budden, Kopala researched and wrote this magisterial analysis of how Russian economist Nikolai Kondratieff's long-wave theory is playing out in what many today describe as a financial Winter. Along the way, she is introduced to financial experts familiar with Kondratieff scholarship. John Budden's interviews in the book with Dean LeBaron, J. Anthony Boeckh, Ian Gordon, Larry Jeddelloh, Don Lindsey, the late Lord William Rees-Mogg, Jim Rogers, Eric Sprott, and Ronald-Peter Stoferle show how investors must put a new spin on asset allocation and security of their assets: like a dog that buries bones in...

The publication is easy in read better to understand. It is writter in basic words and phrases rather than hard to understand. You wont truly feel monotony at anytime of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about if you question me).
