May 23, recommitted for thirty days for stealing bread stuff and frankfurters. He was intoxicated at the time. In October, 1910, he was transferred from the hospital, where he had been under treatment for tuberculosis, to the almshouse but he would not stay. March, 1913, he was sent to the penitentiary because found under influence of liquor in a barn with two men who were arrested for stealing. At present he is in X rooming at a saloon, cleaning up saloons for a living and bothering all his relatives by visiting them when intoxicated. He goes to see his wife nearly every day in that condition. il other, born in X, 1882, feeble-minded. Medium height, pale blue eyes, sallow complexion, teeth dirty, mouth sunken, general expression dull, silly smile. Left school when young and lived at home until she was married. Was always untidy, slouchy, s foolish. The opinion of the investigator is confirmed by those who know her, that she is feeble-minded. On longer acquaintance she is said to prove more foolish. The woman for whom she works says: She doesnt act any older than my own children. If she has a penny she will spend it for candy. She is contented to work merely for a home and a little spending money, the remainder of which she returns...
