Talking of life preservers, said the truthful mariner as he knocked the ashes out of his pipe, you remember the old steamer Roustabout that used to run from Buffalo to Chicago? I was mate on her the year before she was lost. We were about sixty miles out from Chicago when Mike Lanigan, who was doing something up on the mast, fell, struck on his head on the roof of the cabin and bounced clean out into the lake. Well, the captain he see him fall, and he stopped and backed that old Roustabout quicker n you could say scat. Mike went down like a plummet, for he was knocked...
