From table 64 it may be seen that the achievements in Livingston county are consistently higher than the standards established by Trabue, the author of the tests. Attention should be called to the fact that Doctor Trabue specifically states that these figures are estimates and not based upon a sufficiently large number of testings to be set up as standards. They are undoubtedly too low. Comparison of the Livingston county scores with the others reported shows them in general ranking very well. The superiority of the Livingston county scores is greatest in the lower grades, the averages in the four tests being 2.2, 1.9, 1.3, 1.1 and 1.2 for grades 4 to 8 respectively. Paragraph reading. Table 65 permits a comparison of scores in Livingston county with the Thorndike...
