Christ has a tender care not only for the children but also for those who are young in Christian life. The youthful disciple, little and weak, is to be cared for not only by his people, but to be kindly treated by the world. Jesus set a special premium upon their care, and a special punishment upon tripping, deceiving or hurting those who have just entered the Christian life. It is a serious and solemn thought, worthy the consideration of older Christians, that Christ has thus specially taken into his care those who are beginning to walk in his way, even though their steps be tottering and their feet not firm, and like the little child just beginning to walk, they need support. So these young Christian hearts are to be helped, and older ones are carefully to remove everything out of their way that would cause them to stumble. Take away the stumbling-blocks. HELPS FOR PRIMARY CLASSES. March 10. LESSON X. 1889. THE CHILD-LIKE SPIRIT. Mark 9: 33-42. THE HOME OF JESUS. After Jesus began to preach, he had no real home. But Capernaum was his own city, and there was a house in that city to which he often went. It was probably the house of Peter, where Jesus cured Peter s mother-in-law of a fever. Picture Capernaum. It was a busy city on the western shore of the Sea of Galilee. It had a fine synagogue, or Jewish meeting-house, which had been...
